tion of Dewey's return will not be complete unless Schley be there. The Rochester Democrat suggests that any sword presented to Funston should have a waterproof scabbard.

Now that Dewey's route home has been settled, the country can turn its attention to getting a suitable style of campaign button for next year.

Anyway, western people cannot be deprived of their share in the glory that will be heaped upon Dewey at every port where he stops on the return trip through the Suez canal.

About the only way that one of our war heroes could be induced to accept a nomination for vice president, would be to put him on a ticket with Dewey Anybody would be glad to run with

The thousands of men who stood on the bridge with Dewey will be glad to know that it is at last settled where the admiral is to land on his return home. They will have ample time, it the weather remain good, to get to New York and meet him.

New York Sun: John W. Breidenthal, bank commissioner of Kansas, proposes that a government department for the supervision and regulation of trusts be established. A new department seems unnecessary. The Octopus should be referred to the fish commission.

William Safford, an American lawyer and Shakespeare student, writes from London that he discovered incontrovertible proof that Bacon wrote the plays ascribed to William. This is doubtless a move to help along the vice presidential chances of one Ignatius Donnelly.

Wars are following one another a little too swiftly for the magazines. They had not got through with the civil war until the Spanish war came along and crowded it out. This was followed so quickly by the Philippine and Samoan affairs that the editors must be well nigh in dispair.

Everybody seems convinced that the craze for organizing trusts and floating enormous wads of securities will sooner or later bring financial disaster to many investors if not to the entire country, yet these combinations of real and fictitious capital are still being formed and the men who have money and property are investing in them.

Eastern high protection journals like the New York Tribune are now threatening the trusts with a collapse of the tariff wall if they continue in their spoliation policy and boosting of prices. In view of the fact that American manufacturers in almost every line are successfully competing with foreigners in nearly every market of the world, this scare crow is not calculated to inspire much alarm.

Troy Record: 'As soon as Kansas be gan to talk about giving General Funston anything in the political line for which he might ask, some of the western governors began to clamor for the return of the volunteers from their states. Their plea is for justice for the poor volunteers but it is prompted doubtless by the fear that a further stay in the Philippines will create too big a force of political eligibles.

Says the New York Herald: Stripped of all superfluous words, the report of the embalmed beef inquiry board shows -(1) there was no embalmed beef; (2) if there was the quantity was small; (3) General Miles never said embalmed beef was served to the army; (4) if General Miles said embalmed beef was served to the army, he did not mean it; (5) if General Miles did mean it he should not have said it.

The century just closing has seen the constant expansion of the American republic. The Louisiana purchase took place in 1863, and marked the first step. This added to our domain 1.182,752 square miles. The acquisition of the Floridas in 1819 gave us an additional 59,000 square miles. In 1845 the annexation of Texas added 274,000 square miles The treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, in 1848, added 522,000 square miles; in 1850 the state of Texas gave us another 96,-000 square miles. The Gadsden pur chase of 1853 annexed to our domain over 45,000 square miles, and the Alaska purchase of 1867 gave us, in the far North 577,000 square miles. year has seen Hawaii, Porto Rico and the Philippines fall into our hands, while Cuba may be annexed in the near future. Additions up to 1867 cost us a little over $88,000,000; the Philippines have cost us $20,000,000.

Assessors' Returns Indicate Increase in Population.

Should the ratio of increase in the population of the state and the area of crops, as indicated by the assessors returns from eight western Kansas ounties, received by Secretary F. D. oburn, be maintained throughout the state, complete reports will show sub stantial gains for the state during the past year. Reports, complete, have been received from Gove, Decatur, Haskell, Klowa, Lane, Logan, Pawnee and Sheridan

These returns show, compared with 1898, an increase of 1,724 in population, Increase in number of milch cows, 2,192, or 14.9 per cent.
Increase in number of other cattle, 23,644, or 39.4 per cent. number of milch cows,

When the ship bearing the bull arrived at Portland the government inspector would not allow the animal to land because Portland is not a quarantine port. Mr. Libby begged and tine port. Mr. Libby begged and pleaded to be allowed to bring his prize beast ashore, but the authorities were inexorable and on the vessel's return voyage to Scotland the bull recrossed

"One Good Turn Deserves Another."

It is so easy to go through life doing good and helping to make others happy. A lady who had been ill with a complication of troubles, having been thoroughly cured and now enjoying perfect health, felt it a duty to tell her friends that the specific that brought her back to health was Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Thus, after Hood's had served he well, she felt it deserved a good tun at her hands. Thousands tell the same story of blood purified and health restored. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses merit peculiar to itself.

Catarrh - "I suffered over six years with entarrh. Spent over $100 in advertised cures, inhalers etc., without benefit. Finally tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and it accomplished a complete and lasting cure." M. A. Abbey, Victor Ave., Worcester, Mass.

Castritis - "Nervousness caused by a fright made my wife suffer intensely from gastritis. Morphine was necessary to relieve the suffering. Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills were tried after all else failed and in four days she improved and in 14 days she was cured." C. W. T. Schmidt, Cedar Falls, Iowa.

Blood Poison - "At 12 I had bone disease and used crutches. Doctor pascribed and wanted to scrape it. My grandfather gave me Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking four bottles I threw away crutches, am well and go to school." Charles Campbell, 1816 Ontario Ave., Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Dizzy Spells - "After the measles my daughter had dizzy spells, which we thought would pass off but they did not until we gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla. In five days they disappeared and in one month she regained her usual health." B. H. KAMPERBECK, 55 Graves Place, Holland, Mich.

indigestion - "I now have a good appetite, eat well, sleep well and my dyspepsia and indigestion have left me. The reason is I took Hood's Sarsaparilla which entirely cured me. I am Baggage Master on the B. & O. Railroad." THOMAS COLES, 119 Carr St., Sandusky, Ohio.

Being a pet is all right while it lasts, The Engagement of Senator Mason, of Illinois.

> To Deliver the Address to Horton Graduates,

CAUSES A TRAGEDY,

Almost, With Editor Howard as the Victim.

A Revolver is Drawn-Editor's Amusing Account.

Horton, May 13.-Senator W. E. Mason of Illinois delivered an address here last night before the high school graduates. The house was crowded and the speaker given much applause. He opened by announcing that he was not there to abuse any one or any party. but that he was there to express his views and his honest convictions. He quoted freely from Abraham Lincoln, from Daniel Webster and from George Washington, using them all to sustain his beliefs and the right for the position he had taken. He did not refer to President McKinley nor to the administration, but spoke always as "of the American people."

Out of the coming of Senator Mason a bitter war has sprung up between Superintendent J. E. Dyche of the city ools and Editor Bert Howard of the

The latter took strong grounds against Prof. Dyche securing Senator Mason because he was an anti-ex-pansionist and not in accord with Prespansionist and not in accord with Pres-ident McKinley's policy. Superintend-ent Dyche denied that Mason was se-cured to make a political speech. Editor Howard then proceeded to se-verely score Prof. Dyche through his paper. The last issue of the Headlight best explains what followed. It says:

"The editor of the Headlight has been a resident of Brown county for nearly fifteen years. During that time he has never had a fight with any man; but last Thursday afternoon about 6 o'clock Superintendent Dyche, of the public schools, stuck a revolver in our face and threatened to shoot if a move was made. It is safe to say that no move was made; and, for the benefit of those who have never looked into the business end of one of these little pill-throwers, the editor is ready to say, with all candor, that it is a mighty unpleasant thing to have pointed your way. It might have gone off, but it didn't, and there is no one who rejoices over the fact more than the editor. Prof. Dyche had hold of the other end of it, and he is doubtless ashamed for it. If he isn't he should be, and the editor is ashamed also. We did not run, but it was not because we did not want to do so exit was shut off, and we had to wait until the other fellow's arm got tired and he put the pesky thing in his

FUNSTON DID NOT SWIM. Kansas Soldier Writes That He Ferried the Marilao River.

Fort Scott, May 13.-The statemen

Fort Scott, May 13.—The statement sent out from Manila on the 29th of March to the effect that Col. Funston with the Twentieth Kansas regiment swam the river before Malolos in the advance upon that city and captured eighty prisoners, which announcement aroused intense enthusiasm for Funston throughout the nation and was one of his steeping stones to fame, is corrected in a letter from Second Lieut. C. E. Warner of Company M., which was received here today, it being the first descriptive account of the capture was received here today, it being the first descriptive account of the capture of Malolos yet received from a soldier. Lieut. Warner was then sergeant ma-jor, acting as orderly for Col. Funston, and had been close upon his heels throughout the activities. He says: "On the 27th we advanced to the Maridislodge the enemy on the opposite bank, and finally, under cover of our fire, Lieut, Hardy of Company H and Funsion, with one platoon of Company osite side. When the insurgents heard ne firing in their rear and realized that hey were surrounded, they raised the hite flag and surrendered. Twenty-eight were taken prisoners."

Since writing this letter Sergt. Warner has been promoted to a second lieutenancy upon Funston's recommendation. He was wounded at the same time Funston was shot in the hand. They are warm friends, Failure of the Neosho Valley Investment Company Is Being Aired Is Court.

Oswego, May 13.-The case of the State of Kansas vs. Robert Simons on trial here. Simons was president of the Neosho Valley Investment company which had its western office in Chetopa, Kan. The company was placed in the hands of a receiver in 1898, although it had been in an insolvent condition for several years. Parties all over this section, as well as in the east, lost large section, as well as in the east, lost large sums of money. Finally a complaint was sworn to, charging the former president with embezzlement and de-frauding an aged man and woman who purchased a home from the company purchased a home from the company with the understanding that it was clear of all incumbrance, when in fact it was heavily mortgaged.

Mr. Simons was apprehended last February in Chicago, where he had lo-cated for the practice of law. The pros-pect is slim for conviction.

A suit to set aside the sale of the Santa Fe and the reorganization of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway company has been commenced in the district court of Shawnee county by Alfred P. Mr. Lasher is the holder of $15,000 in-come bonds of the Atlantic & Pacific, which were not assumed by the re organized company, when the road passed out of the hands of the re ceivers. He claims that the reorganiza tion was a plan to "freeze out" some of the creditors of the road and on this ground he wants the court to declare the sale and reorganization fraudulent

YOUNKIN IS CONE.

Left No. 1, Who Horsewhipped Him In Public.

SHE HAD RELENTED.

Intended to Send Him to the Penitentiary.

Was Finally Released, After Making Numerous Promises.

S. C. Younkin, who was arrested for having two wives, has left his first wife and in company with his second wife has left town

It was in March that Younkin was arrested and locked up in the city jail. He was afterwards turned over to the county to be tried on the charge of bigamy, and about two weeks ago the case was finally dismissed, and now Younkin has deserted his first wife and probably gene to Kansas City.

It was for the reason that he promised to go back to his first wife that County Attorney Jetmore dismissed the case, for Mrs. Younkin had the care of three small children, and she pleaded hard for her husband's release. Mrs. Younkin No. 2 said she was willing to give up all claims to Mr. Younkin because the first wife had three children

At first Mrs. Younkin No. 1 and Mrs Younkin No. 2 wished to prosecute, and the father of Miss Davis was determined to do so; but after the pleadings of the husband he won the first wife over to his side, and they together won the second wife over, and then the combined efforts of the three won the father-in-law over and the release came.

After his release Younkin and wife No. I gave up their residence near the corner of Sixth and Western avenues and went to live with Younkin's brother Clarence in the west part of town. Clarence Younkin stood by his brother all through the trouble and worked and spent his money for his release and af-ter the owner of the house turned them out on account of the notoriety of the case, for Mrs. Younkin No. 1 had horse-whipped her husband on Kansas ave-nue. Clarence gave his brother and his wife and three children a home at his house and after the notorious brother lost his position as bookkeeper in the lumber yard where he had worked, Clarence Younkin took his brother into partnership working at house cleaning and paper hanging.

Now that Younkin has deserted his own wife for a woman who he claimed was his wife, his friends and even his brother are done with aiding him. After his arrest he claimed that he had never legally married Miss Davis and that a man named Ryan, who drove a coal wagon had performed the mock ceremony and that therefore he could not be prosecuted for having two wives, County Attorney Jetmore decided that the common law made him and the woman he lived with man and wife. He was keeping Miss Davis as his wife, at rooms on Jackson street while his wife was living on Sixth and Western ave-

When he deserted his wife he left her with only 75 cents and in the house of his brother Clarence who is caring for her. If he is found he will not get off so easily this time unless Mrs Youn-kin should again relent. The police are looking for Younkin.
